

CSID Speakers Series Presents

Steve Fuller

“Intellectuals differ from ordinary academics in holding that the truth is best approached not by producing new knowledge, but by destroying old belief.”

Three lectures by Dr. Steve Fuller, Professor of Sociology at the University of Warwick, England:

“Transformative Research: Easy to Fund, Hard to Institutionalize. Why?”
Co-sponsored by the Texas Center for Digital Knowledge
6-7:30 p.m. Sept. 16 (Tuesday), ENV 130

“What Would Lincoln and Darwin Make of Today’s Science and Politics?”
Co-sponsored by the Department of Political Science and Pi Sigma Alpha
6-7:30 (Wednesday), Gateway Center

“Why Intelligent Design is Worth Fighting For”
Co-sponsored by the Department of Philosophy & Religion Studies
5-6:30 p.m. Sept. 18 (Thursday), ENV 110

Contact: Britt Holbrook in the Department of Philosophy and Religion Studies
britt.holbrook@unt.edu

